

ОЧУВАЊЕ И УНАПРЕЂЕЊЕ ИСТОРИЈСКИХ ГРАДОВА PRESERVATION AND IMPROVEMENT OF HISTORIC TOWNS

15 – 16. мај 2014. године
May 15th - 16th 2014

Scientific and Organizing Committee invites respected experts to participate in the First International Conference in Sremski Karlovci on and to give their professional and scientific contributions through a presentation on one of the topics covered by the First International Conference.

”PRESERVATION AND IMPROVEMENT OF HISTORIC TOWNS”

The topics of our annual conference aim to start a discussion about the many problems which historic towns face in the conditions of modern life. Sremski Karlovci, in which the close connection between the territory of the historic town and its resources is clearly expressed, is inspiring for this kind of discussions.

The intention of the organizers is to highlight the historic town as a cultural heritage site and to ensure continuity of discussion and contribute to the preservation, enhancement and promotion of historic towns, nationally and internationally.

We expect the results of this First International Conference will provide a significant contribution to responsible and professional thinking about the preservation of historic towns, a very current and important topic of modern conservation.

For the First International Conference the following general conference topics have been suggested:

- Concept and Definition of the Historic Town
- Shaping Identity of the Historic Town
- Problems of Preservation of Historic Towns
- Concepts and Models of Protection of Historical Towns
- Integration of New Materials and Designs into the Historic Town
- Interpolation and Historic Town
- The Potential of the Historic Town for Tourism Development

Date: 15th and 16th of May 2014

Deadlines:

- Abstract Submission deadline is the 15th of February 2014.
- Notification of acceptance of submitted abstract is 28th of February 2014.
- Paper Submission deadline is the 7th of April 2014.
